Convoso is a MarTech leader of omnichannel contact center software for sales and lead generation teams. Since 2006, the company has continuously innovated its cloud based solution to help businesses drive productivity and profitability. Convoso's conversational AI product, Voso.ai, is accelerating the company vision to power conversations at scale.

We're looking for people who thrive on challenge and opportunity. If that's you, and a culture of positive, team-oriented problem solvers sounds like where you fit in best, we should talk.
